

JULY 4, 1988

The Buffalo N

BILL DYVINIAK/Bufalo News

AFTER THE PARADE — Lackawanna city firefighters lower a large American flag Sunday following a parade dedicated to all veterans and servicemen missing in action in the Vietnam War. The flag hung at South Park Avenue and Ridge Road, in front of Our Lady of Victory Basilica, as the 60-unit parade passed. The parade ended at Ron Jaworski Stadium, site of the city's four-day Ethnic Festival that ends today.